ROME, Aug. 16.-An official statement of operations on the Italian front issued by the war An enemy party which attacked our position at the head of the Padola valley was repulsed after a heavy hand-to-hand struggle. Vesterday one of our largest bombardment flights, strongly escorted, reached the important escorted, reached the important railway center at Assling in the Sava valley with the object of damaging it and interrupting the intense traffic of the enemy there.

The second flight, as powerful as the first, was repeated in the afternoon, the operation having as an objective the steel works in the same locality. The results were very satisfactory. Explosive bombs of medium and large size and also incendiary bombs were dropped, six and a half tons in all, and direct hits were obtained on some works, while other buildings, including the railway station, were set afte. All our airplanes returned after this daring operation, which was most difficult on account of the distance to the center of bombardment.
